Anderson Subsistence Mapping Study Public Meeting

August 6, 2014 at 7:00 P.M. at the Anderson City Hall

Stephen R. Braund & Associates is coordinating with the Anderson City Council to hold a public meeting at the Anderson City Hall on August 6 at 7:00 P.M. This public meeting will introduce subsistence mapping studies associated with the Alaska LNG Project. SRB&A plans to conduct a subsistence mapping study in Anderson along with other communities that could be affected by the Alaska LNG Project. Subsistence data that are collected will be used in the baseline environmental reports for Alaska LNG. The purpose of this meeting is to inform the community about this research and identify potential participants.

Stephen R. Braund & Associates would like to conduct interviews with active and knowledgeable subsistence hunters and harvesters. Information about the Alaska LNG project can be found at: <http://www.arcticgas.gov/alaska-lng-project>

If you are an active subsistence harvester and would like to participate in an interview please attend the meeting on August 6 at 7:00 P.M. and/or contact us at info@srbak.com or 907-276-8222.
